JAY O'BRIEN WINS THE MUG.

PILOTS QUADRILLE TO VICTORY IN RACE FOR THE AMATEUR CUP.

Washington, D. C., April 11.—The Amateur Cup was the attraction which drew an improved attendance at Benning today. There was an agreeable change in the weather also and a good day's sport was witnessed. Quadrille, ridden by Jay O'Brien of New York, was an easy winner of the feature He was a heavily backed favorite. His owner, Will Shields, furnished the favorite for the closing race also in Reidmoore, whose victory was his fourth at the meeting without a defeat.

The Amateur Cup brought out the four best amateur riders in this country, while Mr. Henderson, of Hamilton, Ont., who rode his own horse Thomond, showed to be a rider of skill and judg Mr. O'Brien, who rode the winner seen equally at home on the flat or over country. either he is a finished horseman. Master Tomm Wright, the seventeen-year-old, who rode Bulwark is a star also and is the only rider yet to ride Bulwark under the whip and keep him from swerving.

Oraculum, which won the opening race, will probably prove to be a good sprinter this season. He was not wound up for a hard race, as the best he had worked was three-quarters of a mile in 1:20, but he had so much speed that he beat his opponents without much trouble. Diamond Flush was a false favorite in this race. With any other rider but Miller he would have been at a much longer price.

Long Ball, well backed to beat the odds-on choice Lady Isabel, in the second race would not break and was left standing still.

The Baltimore crowd suffered heavily in the steeplechase. They backed Guardian as if he was a Good and Plenty, but the horse came to grief in the first turn of the field and Paprika, at 5 to 1, was always best of the others.

A very good card is offered for tomorrow and with such horses as Right and True, Blue Dale, How About You; Ben Cole, Servile, Helen B.; Gold Foil, Marston, Bob Callahan Jr.; Cobleskill, Lally, Sally K.; Pins and Needles, Mammymoo, Muck Rake; Oxford, Buttons, Ormonde's Right, showing in the entries the attendance should be largely increased.

WHAT THE REFORMERS IGNORE.

In the course of an able article on betting legislawhich appeared recently in the London Sporting Chronicle, the writer points out how the aims of faddists really tend towards the suppression of racing entirely in England, and asks: "Is the suppression of racing what Englishmen want? Horse racing has made England the envy of the world in its wealth of the finest thoroughbred blood. Hardly an important sale of thoroughbred stock takes place in this country but representatives from the great powers are present eager to buy. Horse racing is endowed and encouraged by most continental governments. But in this country, where the love of a good horse is supposed to be imbedded in the nature of every Englishman, horse racing is to be crushed. The notable service horse racing has rendered the state is nothing; the important idustries racing and the breeding of the thoroughbred have becomewhich they give employment the amount of capital invested in them-is nothing That racing is a national sport and gives pleasure and recreation to thousands is nothing. What important to the Anti-Gambling League is that betting is an unholy excitement. To suggest the abolition of racing and betting because by these means some men make fools of themselves, is as sensible as advocating that all men's teeth should be pulled out because some are gluttons. Deny men their manly games, deny them all excitement, and the result will be an emasculated race—a race of molly coddles.'

JACK ATKIN WILL START IN DERBY.

Louisville, Ky., April 11.-Jack Atkin can be put down as a certain starter in the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs, May 6, barring accidents, of course. In response to a telegram sent by Secretary Lyman H. Davis of the New Louisville Jockey Club, Barney Schreiber today wired from San Fran that Jack Atkin will be taken to Aqueduct from Hot Springs by trainer Herman Brandt and prepared there for the Derby and shipped from New. York to Churchill Downs May 2

Jack Atkin's only stake engagement before May 1 is in the Dunton, three-quarters of a mile for three-year-olds, at Jamaica, April 29. This race will be worth about $1,500 to the winner and it is likely that Mr. Schreiber intends to make a try for The Dunton was won last year by J. W. Fuller's First Premium.

WHERE IS JOCKEY NICOL?

Louisville, Ky., April 11.—Trainer Bill Phillips is trying to locate Jockey Dave Nicol. When last heard from Nicol was at Memphis and about to leave for That was Monday. He has not put his appearance. Some time ago he agreed to ride Juggler in the Carter Handicap at Aqueduct next Monday and it is possible that he has gone on to though telegrams to New York, Chicago and Memphis have failed to disclose his

ONLY ONE WINNING PUBLIC CHOICE. ENGLISH YEARLINGS MAY SELL LOW Nothing to Arrouse Enthusiasm in the Racing at Oakland-May Amelia a Good Thing.

Oakland, Cal., April 11.-Tillinghast won an easy victory in the first race for two-year-olds and was the solitary public choice to score during the afternoon. Hopeless mediocrity marked the class of horses engaged in the different races. In the closing race May Amelia brought her people much wealth. The race had a queer look. Magrane's filly was never seriously menaced until too late when the favorite, Sycamore came along and dropped into a cantering second. Conditions for racing were ideal and the usual big crowd was in evidence. C. E. Durnell will sell the two remaining thoroughbreds in his barn, Fireball and Laura F. M. at auction in the paddock before the races begin next Saturday

A good card for Friday is offered, Guiding Star making his first appearance at the meeting in one of the races, and with such speedy ones as Raleigh. Heather Scott, Rhinestone, Triumphant, Silver Line Miss Martha, The Mighty, Corrigan, Belvoir, E. M. Brattain, Lord Nelson, Laura F. M., Massa Ethel Day and Jocund, Guiding Star, Blondy likely to go to the post is

WIMMER TO TRAIN FOR MACDONOUGH.

York, April 11.-The Ormondale Stable owned by W. O'B. Macdonough, of California, will be trained this year by Peter Wimmer instead of Tom Welsh. As the Newcastle Stable has a larger string than ever before trainer Welsh will have his hands so full that he cannot find the time to look after the Ormondale Stable's stars—Ormondale, the Futurity winner of 1905, and Oran, now a well developed three-year-old. There are also several two-year-olds bred by Mr. Macdonough that will race in his colors this year. In securing Wimmer the California turfman has secured a veteran of wide experience. Wimmer formerly trained for the late S. S. Brown until he was succeeded by Robert Tucker, but when W. Harry Brown returns to the turf next year, Wimmer will probably be engaged as the trainer once more. Wimmer has several horses of his own and also has a contract on the services of jockey Brussel.

JOCKEY JOE HARRIS MURDERED.

Shreveport, La., April 11 .- Joe Harris, the negro ockey who rode at Los Angeles last winter, killed here this morning. His body with a bullet through the heart was found near a stable. Harris had several diamonds and considerable mon his person when found. There is no clue to the Jockey J. Harris' last mount was at Ascot Park, March 15, when King of Mist fell with him. boy had his collarbone broken by the fall. It was not reported from Los Angeles that he had gone to Shreveport. He was a good rider and was among twenty leading jockeys of this year, having ridden thirty-six winners in 172 races since January 1.

FILE MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL.

Cincinnati, O., April 11 .- J. B. Respess and E. R. Bryson, through Attorney John B. O'Neal, have filed motion in the Federal Court at Covington, Ky., for a new trial of J. Clyde Wolfe's suit again them. They set out that Judge Cochrane erred in his charge to the jury and that the verdict was not in accordance with the testimony. Wolf sued for $7,400, alleging that he lost that much playing the races at the old power house poolroom in Covington, and the jury gave him a verdict of $2,186.

GARTH SELLS KITTY SMITH.

Washington, D. C., April 11.—William Garth has sold the two-year-old brown filly Kitty Smith, by Jack Point—Miss Kingston, to W. L. Maupin. The has raced four times at Benning, but has shown nothing 'sensational. Mr. Garth believes the was started a bit too soon, and that a year's rest will do her enough good to return to the races a fairly good three-year-old. She has plenty of speed, but is not capable of a sustained effort.

CORRIGAN TO RACE AT LOUISVILLE.

Lousville, Ky., April 11.-The story that has been going the rounds the past few days that Ed Corrigan would not race any horses at Louisville is certainly untrue, as his agent, Tom McGee, has wired Secretary Lyman Davis for twenty-two stalls at Topiary, the daughter of Orme and Plaisanterie, which August Belmont brought over from England along with Rock Sand last July, foaled a filly by Melton at Nursery Stud, April 4.

Breeders, However, Are Cheerful and Anticipating a Successful Season.

"While at Lincoln and Liverpool last week I had the pleasure of meeting several of our leading breeders. They were all in a very cheerful frame of mind, and hoping for, if not anticipating, a suc writes the Special Commissioner for London Sporting Life. "It is just as well, however, that none of the big yearling sales take place at this period of the year, because I am afraid that with the stock and share market in its present de pressed state, sellers would come off rather badly. Everybody one meets appears to have American rails on the brain. I do not profess to be able to under-stand the mysteries of contangoes and such like things, but I have heard enough these last few days to convince me that all is not as it should be, and that many people have been badly hit by the recent slump. Presumably this means that for some little time to come there will be less money available for luxuries, and I take it that, in a general way, roughbreds are to be reckoned among the luxurie of life. A Curiosity of the situation is the paradox that much of the mischief is due to the wave of prosperity that is passing over these islands and other parts of the world.

"From information received I understand that siness enterprises are swallowing all surplus capital, and that the Stock Exchange is geing drained in order to provide the wherewithal for manufacturers. Still, when all is said, I believe the recent fall in the prices of railway stock is of less consequence to the Turf's estate than the continued. ne might say chronic, depression in the Rand gold industry. If only the millions locked up in the ourg mines could be recovered, or to yield a reasonable return, we should speedily renewal of the healthy and inspiriting competition for good-class horses, and racing in all its phases would once more be established on really flourishing lines. Not that I wish to imply that the present state of things is by any means desperate. On the contrary, last week's proceedings went with so decided a swing that we have every reason to congratulate ourselves on the vitality of the greatest of our sports. Still, the public breeder will not, I am sure, be averse from seeing a little more money flowing into his coffers.

"At the best it is no easy matter to make the breeding of thoroughbred stock a paying business. One of these days I hope to tackle this subject thoroughly. I will only say now that quite recently a well-known and thoroughly practical breeder allowed ne to see two of his annual balance sheets. The figures were eye-openers, for they disclosed a ning well into the thousands each year. A little bad luck will, of course, make a world of difference, but so will the lack of competition at the ring-side. Let hope, therefore, that before the July sales e along, to say nothing of the great dispersal at Don-caster in September, the Stock Exchange will have completely recovered from the experience through which it is now passing."

ROSEBEN WORKS IN THE MUD.

"Because of the proximity of the Aqueduct meet ing trainers who have horses at the Long Island tracks felt compelled yesterday to subject the racers to exercise gallops in spite of the heavy snowstorm and the sloppy going," says the New York Sun of Wednesday. "At Gravesend there was much mere activity than at the Bay. Trainer Weir had Roseben, the probable favorite in the Carter Handicap next Monday, out early, and the big fellow, who always liked the mud, worked three quarters of a ile in 1:18, handily, his rider keeping him under a pull all the way. In the opinion of the track sharps who saw this work Roseben will be at his best when he goes to the post.

"Weir also sent the mare Whimsical five furlongs in 1:08 4-5 and Grapple three-quarters in 1:20, both of them cantering. Kernochan got six furlongs in 1:20 also, while Clark Griffith turned a half in Handzarra and Senator Clay, also from Weir's stable, showed up to advantage over a similar route. Avaunteer, which is ready for racing, galloped three-quarters in 1:20 3-5, while Nogi. mmando colt, turned the same distance in 1:22 3-5, apparently fit and good. Ed Ball showed a half in 0:56, hard held, and Kiamesha II. went three-quarters in 1:20 3-5. Others that were worked or Gravesend track and did well were John P. Bergen, Apple Toddy, Herodotus, Masaniello, Bonnie Allan, Miss Spooner, Tyrol, Brother Thomas, Claude Duval, Russell T., Mirza, and Nigger Mike."

AQUEDUCT TRACK IS MUDDY.

New York, April 11.-The track at Aqueduct is deep and holding now, but the weather is favorable and it will dry out by Monday unless there is

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Beacon Light is working well at Louisville. Senator Barrett should not be overlooked. He is good colt.

Black Domino wrenched herself in her work at Benning Monday.

A. Lee is under suspension at Benning for disobe-dience at the post.

Bob Callahan, Jr., is named for the proprietor of hotel in Washington.

The much touted Helen B., will make her second appearance at Benning today.

Besides the Carter Handicap, Malacca is eligible to the Arverne and the Union Stakes at Aqueduct. Jockey J. C. Mitchell will not go abroad year. He expects to ride as a free lance at New York tracks.

ESTERJOY WINS FROM SAUL.

WILLIAM GERST GETS THE PURSE IN ANOTHER STEEPLECHASE.

John L. Inglis Scores His Fourth Successive Victory-Is a Good Horse Just Now -New Orleans Gossip.

New Orleans, La., April 11.—The steeplechase ver the short course and the condition race at a mile and a sixteenth were the features at City Park today. William Gerst's Esterjoy won the jumping race from Saul by a narrow margin. Ester-joy showed plenty of speed through the first turn of the field and fenced in faultless fashion. couple of bad jumps and this cost him the race. He finished gamely under punishment and was steadily gaining at the end and would have beaten Esteriov out in a few more strides.

Inglis won the fourth race easily. was intelligently handled by Minder, who rated him along behind the early leader and delayed his effort until well around the far turn. Today's victory marked John L. Inglis' fourth straight win. He is a good horse just now and will be heard from up the line.

Edward Corrigan shipped to Chicago this afternoon to be turned out at Hawthorne for the summer, a carload of horses. Several of the number. among them Planute, have gone lame here this winter and they will be rested up until next fall.

Richard Dwyer will return to California Saturday night to succeed Jake Holtman as starter at Oakland. Holtman will do the starting at Lexing-ton and Louisville. It is said that "Curly" Brown will do the starting at Latonia.

There will be two horse specials leaving here on Sunday for Louisville, one of which will go via the Illinois Central and the other over the Louisville and Nashville.

Nothing of great promise sticks out in the program for tomorrow, but the horses class well together, Maelstrom, Fieldwick, Alanie; Rose Daly, Edna Motter, Carasco; R. F. Williams, Fred Hornbeck, Lady Goodrich; Grand Duchess, Rather Royal, Rebounder; Truce, Bucket Brigade, Bayou Lark; Savoir Faire, Cull, John McBride; Boserrian, Dorothy Duncan and Kohinoor being included in the list of probable starters, the racing should be well con-T. K. Lynch.

BINONDO AND BLACK ART DEAD.

Louisville, Ky., April 11.-Binondo and Black Art died of lung fever at Churchill Downs today. Both horses contracted the diesase en route from Hot Springs to this city. Binondo was a three-year-old brown gelding by Sempronius—Algie M., and was the property of T. P. Hayes. He was eligible the Kentucky Derby, but would probably have been a starter in that race had he lived. He was hardly of Derby quality. He won one of his five starts last year and had been in the oney in three of his five starts this year. Hayes has another Derby eligible in Redgauntlet and he is almost certain to carry his colors for the prize May 6. Redgauntlet worked three-quarters of mile in the mud yesterday morning in 1:18 and did it impressively. Black Art was a five-year-old brown horse by Sorcerer-Hue and was the property of W. L. Mower. He had not been in the money in any of his eight races this year, but was a winner each of the three previous years. He was originally the property of William Gerst, and trainer McDaniel thought quite a bit of him as a yearling. He took him to Chicago in 1904, but he trained off and did so poorly that he became disgusted with him and sold him to Walter Gum, for whom he later proved a good investment. He won three of his eighteen races as a two-year-old. year won two of his nineteen races.

MAY BE STAR SOME DAY.

Washington, D. C., April 11.-Justice Gould, of the District Supreme Court, has made it possible for Raymond T. Bligh, thirteen and a half years old, to be a jockey. The lad is an orphan and has no property, and his sister, Catharine Hartnett, asked that she be appointed his guardian so that he might be apprenticed to Henry McCarthy, an owner and trainer of horses, who wanted to hire him. The court appointed her guardian and authorized her to make a contract with Mr. McCarthy by which her ward is apprenticed to him for five years. Under the proposed contract the boy is to receive $5 per month the first year, $10 the second. $12 the third, $15 the fourth, and $20 the fifth year, in addition to his board, clothing, tuition and fees riding horsess other than those of his employer.

JOE ULLMAN EN ROUTE HOME.

San Francisco, Cal., April 11.,-Joseph Ullman the well known bookmaker, was taken east today as an insane patient by deputy sheriff Whalen. He came to California about a month ago as the financial backer of the San Carlo Opera Company and was taken to Dr. Gardiner's Sanitarium shortly after his arrival.

MONTREAL OPENS A $10,000 STAKES.

Montreal, Que., April 11 .- The Montreal Jockey Club today announced a stake with $10,000 guaranteed for foals of 1907, to be run in 1909. This will be double the value of any race ever run for in Canada.

Winner—Br. f, by Morte Fonse—Huronia (trained by D. Dennison).

Went to post at 2:34. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same; third driving. Kogo got away badly but worked through and constantly improving her position caught the leaders tiring in the last sixteenth and won going away fast. Alfa Spa was reserved in close pursuit of the pacemaker to the last turn and shuffled back, then came again like a shot. Duke of Orleans held a forward position trota the start and loomed like the winner midway of the stretch but tired finally. Elmdale moved up into a premature lead on the far turn and quit in the stretch. Kruka, a slow beginner and shuffled to the rear on the first turn, closed a big gap in the last half and was best. Namey W. failed to stay but showed good early speed. Bogum had no chance at the start or with his ride. The winner was entered for S500; no bid.

Scratched—67432 Seven Bells, 102.

Overweights—Kruka, 2 lbs; Calendar, 2; Joyful, 5.

FOURTH RACE—3-4 Mile. (1:12—6—118.) Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $325.

Winner—B. g, by Torso—Clara Wilson (trained by H. Stover).

Went to post at 3:01. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third driving. George P. McNear, luckily and forwardly placed in the early runing, drew out in the last quarter and won off as his rider pleased. Instructor after close pursuit of Pelham from the start showed in front momentarily and gamely earned second place. Military Man, shut off and pulled up at the start, worked through on the inside to the last turn where he came along with a belated end rush on the outside and was best. Hedgethorn, nearly left, closed a tremendous gap on the outside under a bad ride. Alice Cary, shuffled to the rear early, closed up much ground and came very fast at the end. Snow was very sore. Pelham again failed to stay. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.
